Saligram.	..	19th and 20th.	..

Present.

C. Raghavacharlu, President.
1. Mr. Tirumalachar, Amildar, and forty-two others.

The prize lists were read out, special attention being drawn to the reputation of Saligram and Murle for paddy and draught cattle. A statement of exhibits was drawn up.

The following suggestion was made :—

That free passage across the Cauvery be provided for all exhibits, especially to cattle and live-stock, the ferrymen being remunerated at a lump sum by the Exhibition Committee.

Many of the exhibitors demanded this as almost a condition of their bringing exhibits.

C. Raghavacharlu, President.
1. Mr. Tirumalachar, Amildar, and twenty-six others.

The prize lists were repeatedly read out and much persuasion, entreaty, encouragement and other means were found necessary to induce any exhibitors coming forward. This was the worst meeting in the Taluk. The statement of exhibits includes a small collection of cattle, grains, fibres, &c. Free passage across the river was demanded and insisted upon here also.
